AS: At what age did you begin playing football, what stages have you passed?

GD: I have started playing football for FC Banants when I was 12 yrs. old in 2002. The offer to play for U-18 National Team came when I was FC Banants player. Now I am already a U-21 National Team and FC Banants starting line-up player.

AS: In the future will you want to continue your career outside of Armenia?

GD: Yes, sure.

AS: What are your objectives in football?

GD: My goal is to become a world star.

AS: Do you view yourself as a successful footballer?

GD: Yes, I view myself as a successful player.

AS: Who do you feel yourself obliged for being a footballer now?

GD: I owe my family for my career.

AS: Do you think present-day Gagik Daghbashyan can reach the level of the National Team?

GD: The time will tell.

AS: You played for Armenia U-21 Team against Montenegro this year. What is your opinion on the team's chances and your performance?

GD: This year our team has very good chances to be successful. As to my performance, I could have definitely played better.

AS: FC Banants Academy is in front of your eyes. Do you see the new generation talented youngsters who will be able to step up after you as U-21 National Team players?

GD: There are always good substitutes in FC Banants.

AS: Is there a club you would like to play for?

GD: I would like to play for Chelsea FC.

AS: Is there a footballer you would want to resemble?

GD: I would very much want to play like Roberto Carlos, Dani Alves or Marcelo.

AS: Except for football what other sports you are interested in?

GD: I am attracted by tennis and swimming.

AS: What type of rest do you prefer?

GD: Active.

AS: Thank you. We wish success in your football career.

GD: Thank you.
